Nov 25, 2008 Â· Remote control your computer remotely via the Internet over a Â .Dougie Dunn Douglas P. Dunn (born December 1, 1955) is a Canadian retired professional ice hockey defenceman who spent his career with the Colorado Rockies and Los Angeles Kings of the NHL. Playing career As a youth, Dunn played in the 1971 and 1972 Quebec International Pee-Wee Hockey Tournaments with a minor ice hockey team from Toronto. Dunn grew up in Port Colborne, Ontario, where he attended Northern Collegiate Hockey Association rival the Northern Illinois University. He played his entire NHL career with the Colorado Rockies, after being selected by Colorado in the first round, ninth overall, of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft. He scored five goals and 12 assists in 72 games during the 1977–78 season for the Rockies. On March 1, 1978, Dunn was traded by Colorado with Kevin Kirwan, Jim Thomson and a first round pick to the Los Angeles Kings for Paul Baxter and a third round pick. In his final NHL season, Dunn scored 8 goals and 26 assists for 34 points. He left the NHL in 1979 as the highest scoring defenceman in franchise history. Coaching career After his playing career, Dunn began his coaching career in 1981 as a player-coach with the Calgary Cowboys of the CHL. In 1985, he coached the Ontario Hockey League's Kingston Canadians. He remained with the team until 1992, when he was hired as head coach of the Swift Current Broncos, moving them from the Western Hockey League to the Canadian Hockey League. In 1993, he was dismissed after the team won only 18 of 50 games, and was replaced by Don Hay. He was then hired by the Kalamazoo Wings in 1994, and remained there until 1995, when he was named assistant coach for the Los Angeles Kings, working under then head coach Tom Renney. After Renney was fired as head coach in 2001, Dunn was again in contention to coach the team. He interviewed to take over the vacant position, but was not given the job, finally being named assistant coach to then head coach Danny Fortson the following year. He remained with the Kings 0cc13bf012
