Never seen a game of this scale where you play as a faction leader that leads his people into fierce battles with all the other factions and their legendary ships. The action-packed and exciting adventure starts in Gemini where players can create their own empire in new and unique map modes. As the leader of a player-led faction, you will need to explore your back- and inter-sector territories and determine the best strategic route to secure trade agreements and research facilities.

Experience over 15 different upgrades including ship hull, systems, weapons, ammo and add-on modules, and unlock new stats and ship skills by conquering players from other factions. The variety of play styles is further enhanced by the ability to play skirmishes in 2-4v-2, 1-3v-2 and 3-4v-2 modes. A complete tutorial and in-depth manual guide you through all the important features of the game to ensure new players can jump into the game without any problems at all. Unleash your strategic skills in the map "Game Center". Influence your faction's score and increase your victory probability against other players by utilizing different strategic options as and when they occur. If the conquest of a new system isn't enough, engage in ship-to-ship combat by defeating enemy units on your opponent's planets. Play solo or take part in tournaments hosted by other players from your faction. The battlefield is yours to use and explore to suit your strategy and preference. Before you take the reins, however, you need to gain the trust of your subjects; the people will play a huge role in deciding the outcome of your faction and your future as a leader. Their loyalty and your actions will shape the narrative and steer your success or failure.
