Biography Coates attended UConn where she led the Huskies to the 2000 NCAA Singles Championship. In singles she was the number one singles and number two doubles finalist at the 1999 ITA All-American Championships. Her best performance at a WTA Tour tournament came in the doubles event of the 1999 Thailand Open with her partner Bethanie Mattek. They upset top seeds Lisa Raymond and Rennae Stubbs in the first round, before going on to reach the quarter-finals. In June 2001 she played in her first Grand Slam event at the 2001 US Open partnering American Leila Chan. They made it to the second round of the women's
