Monday, 1 December 2011 Christmas Clothes for little girls: 12 Pictures Who else wants to see how I have crammed so many outfits into this babe! I know it's a pointless thing to do, but I am going to have a photo shoot in Christmas time, and I like to show off my hard work before Christmas. (It doesn't work when you are in the photos, does it!) So you have probably guessed by now that I only have just over 2 weeks to get finished with these little darlings before I need to start dressing them, and I had better get started!! (Tinkerbell) As I said before, I am going to be spending Christmas in America, so I am going to be cramming as much Christmas stuff into her suitcase as I can possibly get! The one is already full and I have lots of room left! I decided it was time to hit the big shops (Marks and Spencer, Primark, next door to a jewellers, Ted Baker) and have my little one spot up a few different outfits. I am not sure if it's the first time I have gone on a clothes buying spree, but I seem to be spending all my time sitting in the changing rooms, picking out outfits! Luckily for me, she is a lovely weather for it, but we have had a few days of snow and rain, and I am not sure how that is going to be in the States! I am worried that she will be wearing them all year round! There are so many things I love in the right ages
