It's Free! (well, as long as you stay within the content's guidelines) We use this video editor to edit all videos-about our kids, our lives, places that we've traveled, dogs, cats, what have you. When we were creating this video editor we were trying to find a video editor that was at least easy for someone on the go and a non-techie such as ourselves. We searched and searched, and finally found NCH Editor VideoPad (VideoPad 5.11). For a quick over view, we will go over how to use VideoPad for editing videos. A bit of context: For our last video, several of you told us and commented that a basic video editor like VideoPad would be easy and good enough. We, because we understand that many of you don't have a lot of money, have decided to go out and get VideoPad FREE! We don't have to condone or encourage this, we have created this video editor for those of you who want to edit videos, and are either just learning, or are overwhelmed and want to create a video editor from scratch. - In NCH's website, you can download VideoPad for free. - If you haven't been logged into the NCH website since downloading VideoPad, you will.
